Copper tubing stolen from company

MIDDLESEX — State police are investigating a large copper theft from Suburban Propane in Middlesex.

Four spools of soft copper tubing were stolen from the bed of a work truck parked on Three Mile Bridge Road. Police believe the theft may have taken place between 5 p.m. on Thursday and 7:45 a.m. Friday.

Anyone with information concerning this incident is asked to contact Trooper Schneider at the Middlesex Barracks at 802-229-9191.
